Elaine's mother, who was sleeping at the time, was trapped in the burning room. Without hesitation, Elaine ran to her mother's aid.

Elaine tried to open the door to her mother's room, but it was locked. She then tried to break the window, but it was too thick.

Elaine knew that she had to do something quickly. She ran to the kitchen and grabbed a knife. She then used the knife to break the window.

Once the window was broken, Elaine climbed into her mother's room. She found her mother lying on the floor, unconscious.

Elaine picked up her mother and carried her out of the burning room. She then laid her mother down on the ground and called for help.

Thanks to Elaine's quick thinking and bravery, her mother was able to survive the fire. Elaine's mother was treated for smoke inhalation, but she is expected to make a full recovery.
