Josiah Howard, a renowned DJ and producer known for his innovative remixes, approached "Strong Enough" with a deep appreciation for the original's emotional power. "I wanted to create a version that would retain the song's anthemic essence while infusing it with a fresh perspective," he explains.

Howard meticulously dissected the original track, isolating its core elements and experimenting with different tempos, arrangements, and sounds. He reinterpreted the iconic string section with sweeping orchestral flourishes, adding a layer of epic grandeur that elevates the song's emotional impact.

Equally impressive is the integration of electronic beats. Howard's deft touch ensures that these beats complement the orchestral elements seamlessly, creating a dynamic interplay that propels the song forward. The resulting track is a cohesive masterpiece, showcasing Howard's ability to bridge musical boundaries with finesse.
