Uncovering the Roots at Jamestown Settlement

Journey to Jamestown Settlement, the birthplace of English America. Here, you'll stand at the very spot where the first permanent English settlement in the New World was established in 1607. Explore reconstructed replicas of the original fort, watch skilled artisans demonstrate colonial crafts, and delve into the challenges and triumphs faced by the early colonists.

Unveiling the Architectural Masterpieces of Thomas Jefferson

Our trek continues to Monticello, the magnificent mountaintop estate of Thomas Jefferson, the third President of the United States and a prominent figure in American history. Admire the architectural brilliance of Jefferson's home, designed by himself in the Palladian style, and gain insights into his political philosophy and personal life. Wander through his gardens, explore the Mulberry Row plantation, and immerse yourself in the rich legacy of one of America's founding fathers.

Cultural Immersion at the Carter's Grove Plantation

Experience the enigmatic world of the Tidewater plantation at Carter's Grove, a beautifully preserved estate overlooking the James River. Engage with costumed interpreters, delve into the lives of the enslaved Africans who worked the plantation, and admire the exquisite architecture of the manor house. Stroll through the formal gardens, witness period demonstrations, and immerse yourself in the complex social and economic dynamics of the antebellum South.
