Mother Bessie's approach to lottery was based on the belief that certain numbers had a tendency to "travel" together, appearing in winning combinations more frequently than others. She meticulously tracked lottery results, identifying patterns and sequences that could potentially lead to success. The Traveling Numbers

Mother Bessie's 21 traveling numbers were: 3, 7, 10, 12, 19, 21, 25, 27, 30, 33, 37, 39, 42, 44, 46, 48, 51, 53, 55, and 60. She believed that these numbers had a higher probability of appearing in winning combinations, and she would often bet heavily on them.

Strategies for Using the Traveling Numbers

Mother Bessie employed various strategies when using her traveling numbers for Pick 3 and Pick 4 lottery games. She would often play the numbers straight, as well as in various combinations and permutations. For example, she might play the numbers 3, 7, and 10 as a straight bet, or she might play them as a boxed combination (3, 7, 10, 10, 7, 3).

Another strategy that Mother Bessie used was to bet on the same numbers for multiple draws. She believed that by consistently playing her traveling numbers, she would increase her chances of eventually hitting a big win.
