Kavonte's commitment to social justice began when he was in middle school. He was inspired by the Black Lives Matter movement and wanted to find a way to make a difference in his community.

In 2017, Kavonte founded his own mentorship program called The K.A.R.E Project. The program provides mentorship, tutoring, and college prep services to underrepresented and marginalized youth in Houston.

Kavonte's work has been recognized by several organizations, including the Obama Foundation and the NAACP. He was also named one of the "25 Most Influential Teens of 2018" by Time magazine.

Kavonte's story is an inspiration to us all. He is a reminder that young people can make a difference in the world. He is also a testament to the power of mentorship. With the right support, young people can achieve anything they set their minds to.

The K.A.R.E Project

The K.A.R.E Project is a mentorship program that provides support to underrepresented and marginalized youth in Houston. The program offers a variety of services, including:

- Mentoring
- Tutoring

- College prep services
- Social and emotional support

The K.A.R.E Project is designed to help young people develop the skills and confidence they need to succeed in school and in life. The program is based on the belief that all young people have the potential to succeed, regardless of their race, ethnicity, gender, or socioeconomic status.

Kavonte started The K.A.R.E Project because he wanted to make a difference in his community. He saw firsthand the challenges that underrepresented and marginalized youth face, and he wanted to provide them with the support they need to succeed.

The K.A.R.E Project has been a success since its inception. The program has helped hundreds of young people improve their academic performance, develop their leadership skills, and prepare for college.

Kavonte is proud of the work that The K.A.R.E Project has done. He believes that the program is making a positive impact on the lives of young people in Houston.

Kavonte's Impact

Kavonte Carthron is an inspiring young leader. He is making a difference in his community and beyond. His work with The K.A.R.E Project is changing the lives of young people.

Kavonte is a role model for other young people. He shows us that anything is possible if we set our minds to it. He is also a reminder that we all have a responsibility to give back to our communities.

Kavonte's story is a reminder that young people can make a difference in the world. We should all be inspired by his example and work to make our communities better places for all.

How to Get Involved

There are many ways to get involved with The K.A.R.E Project. You can:

- Donate money to support the program
- Volunteer your time to mentor or tutor young people
- Spread the word about The K.A.R.E Project to your friends and family

No matter how you choose to get involved, you can make a difference in the lives of young people in Houston.
